MEXICAN POLICY TO REMAIN UNCHANGED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—After a conference lasting a half hour with the president today, Senator Stone announced that there was no change to be made in the Mexican policy of the administration.
President Wilson made clear the point that the immediate action demanded in the senate yesterday could not well be complied with, "Carranza cannot be expected to do anything in a day" was the way one official expressed himself.

The president deplored the inflated utterances made by senators concerning the Mexican question which very much embarrasses the administration at this critical time. Senator Stone declared today that he would back the administration in the senate.

Confirmation has just been received by the state department concerning the killing of General Almendra, and the capturing of General Rodriguez, officers under Villa.

"For God's sake, give Carranza a chance!"
cried Senator Stone, trembling with emotion as he faced the stream of fierce demands in the senate today for immediate intervention. He pleaded absolutely for a more calm and deliberate consideration of the Mexican problem before adopting desperate measures.

KAISER IN DANGEROUS CONDITION.

GENEVA, Jan. 14.—Despite the frequent reassuring messages received here from Berlin, startling rumors continue to be released concerning the condition of the kaiser. Unsubstantiated reports are in circulation to the effect that the emperor is suffering from a high fever.

SOUTH IN ICY GRIP; ANOTHER DROP COMING; MEMPHIS FOUR ABOVE

ATLANTA, Jan. 14.—To-day the temperature here is 24 degrees above zero and high, icy winds are sweeping through the streets. The weather is clear, but colder than at any previous time this winter.
In Memphis, the thermometer stands at four above. The low lands are flooded for many miles and there is great suffering among the poorer classes in the cities as well as in the more isolated districts. It is stated that the loss of live stock amounts to a considerable figure.

A dispatch from Louisville, Kentucky, states that the valley of the Ohio river is covered with a sheet of water and the living cold is causing much damage.

Another drop of 10 degrees will be experienced before the Atlanta seaboard is rid of the present cold snap, the severest of the winter, according to the weather bureau at Washington.

A drop in the temperature is due tonight, after which the thermometer is predicted to rise.
The northwest reports 32 to 50 below. Chicago is one below.

This statement over. I have a standing challenge to any cement-block maker, that if I am not selling more cement blocks than the total of all the rest combined, they may print their statement in a space twice the size of this ad, at my expense.

Big values and a mighty fine profit (so fine the other fellows can hardly see it) are the reasons why I am selling to nearly all the general contractors.

In the year just passed I used many thousands of barrels of cement. Buying in these quantities allows me to make better prices than a man getting a car at long intervals. I am very much pleased that I am selling year after year to the same general contractors.

They must be satisfied, or they would change.

"ARMED INTERVENTION."

Since you insist that we lay aside our neutrality, insofar as it affects Pan-American matters, and give to Mr. Wilson and the other harassed members of the Washington administration our invaluable opinion of the best way to settle the Mexican muddle, we herewith elucidate:

We are in favor of "armed intervention," when necessary, to exactly that geographical point marked by the Rio Grande river; in the territory and in the people south of that point we entertain a sympathetic interest that is not at all tinged with belligerent inclination. Regrettable as it is for Americans to go down in Mexico, against the advice of the United States government, and get murdered by irresponsible "greasers," we are unable to see that this action is morally or otherwise bound to sacrifice or even risk sacrificing other lives, by sending down an army to straighten out the tangle—and, incidentally, making the complications more serious than ever. True, many thousands of American citizens reside in Mexico and own property there, and some of them have been grossly maltreated. But the United States has formally recognized the de facto government headed by General Carranza, and so long as he exercises reasonably sound judgment and manifests an earnest desire to protect the lives and property rights of all aliens, this country cannot, in our opinion, properly resort to armed interference. Suppose we—the United States—were confronted with circumstances similar to those obtaining in Mexico? Suppose that this country, because of violent attacks made by isolated groups of our own citizens upon resident Englishmen or Germans or Russians, were threatened by an invading army from England, or Germany or Russia. What a howl would be heard throughout the length and breadth of this land! Who is there to say that howl would not be well-timed? And ninety-nine per cent. of those worthy people who are now clamoring for "armed intervention" in Mexico would be as indignant as anybody else.

"Florida smiles while the North is shivering," says a newspaper headline. That doesn't mean that Florida is smiling at the shivers; we've got something else to smile about.

Sentiment in favor of choosing the "right sort" of men as commissioners for Daytona is growing. Well it may. This is no time to take chances with men of mediocre mental measure.

Understand the "simp" who mixes up torridity, frigidity, atmosphere, hydrogen and oxygen, and calls it weather is predicting direful things for these parts. Don't believe it. However, it is quite possible that we could be "convinced against our will."

That hundred-dollar prize The News has offered for a legend to adorn the walls of Burgoyne casino has had the effect of causing many visitors and homefolks alike to "sit up and take notice." While most of the ladies and gentlemen, who have signified their purpose to seek a more intimate acquaintance with our even century of simoleons, are taking plenty of time in the preparation of mottoes to be submitted; others started early and a few have already filed their offerings. The contest is absolutely free, and any citizen of Volusia county or any pupil in the public schools of the county may participate, at a maximum cost of five cents for a postage stamp.

FAIR OFFICIALS NOW WANT ONLY A WEEK OF FAIR WEATHER

Each day brings January 22, the date on which Volusia county's first fair is to open at DeLand, nearer, and each day's close sees the fair officials' work that much nearer complete. Everything is in ship-shape and the prospect is that Volusia county is going to have a fair second to none in the South. Exhibit entries from seven different states are already in and coming on every mail. The five main buildings on the grounds will be taxed to their capacity.

Local and county exhibitors are making it their fair and harmony in the slogan among all towns throughout the county.

Poultry, hogs, citrus fruits and vegetables will lead in numbers, with manufactures, arts, etc., a close second. Interest in every department is maintained by the way entries are coming in.

The amusement end will be taken care of by the Johnny Jones Exposition shows, which are, in themselves, a guarantee of genuine, clean attractions.

All in all, the fair officials have everything so well in hand that all they are asking now is for a week of sunshine.

Ancient Ideas Concerning World.
As on ages of the growth of human reason lapsed before there was the least glimmering among the wisest of mankind of the rotundity of earth. Other ages were submerged in the unmeasured past before there came the crudest of scientific assertions of this rotundity. The greatest philosophers of antiquity not so far apart believed the earth was flat; that it had this or that for a foundation; that foundation having this or that monster animal for its foundation, or that the whole rested on the back of a giant.

Ominous.
What did the chief of the cannibals say when the pretty girl missionaries were brought into his presence? "Smacked his lips and said: 'These chickens.'"—Baltimore American.

The Quiet Chap.
Wonder if it ever occurs to the contented chap that while he is spending his time bragging about his ability the little chap is busily earning his money and another raise in salary?

FLA. PASSENGER AGENT FOR I. C. ROAD IN THE CITY

S. C. Baird, Florida Passenger agent for the Illinois Central railroad, spent Thursday in Daytona. His business here was to familiarize himself with local passenger traffic prospects, which he found much to his liking. The Illinois Central's reservations this season for transportation from northern points to Florida resorts are already sufficiently large to put officials of the road's passenger department in a happy frame of mind, and an excellent winter's business is anticipated.

Mr. Baird necessarily had to cut short his stay here in order to briefly visit other East Coast cities before time for his reappearance at his headquarters in Jacksonville.

ANTI-AMERICAN AGITATION PROHIBITED IN GERMANY

BERLIN, Jan. 13.—The latest submarine controversies and the steady growth of the export of American arms and ammunition to the countries of the Allies have further increased the bitter feeling of the German nation against the United States.

In the southern part of Germany an agitation for a general boycott against American goods after the war has been started. A self-constituted committee sent out thousands of circulars to merchants and consumers, urging them to punish the United States commercially for their unfairness to Germany and for the arming of the Allies.

The government does not look with favor on this propaganda and in Baden and Wurttemberg it has been stopped by the authorities.

CLAIM THAT ENGLISH BOYS SUFFER FROM PROSPERITY

LONDON, Jan. 13.—Leaders in the Boy Scout movement complain that the boys are being demoralized because they are now able to earn twice as much money as before the war on account of the present demand for labor. Picture palaces do a roaring business largely through the patronage of war-prospering boys.

ARMY AND NAVY TO LOSE SCORE OF BIG LEADERS THIS YEAR

LIST OF THOSE TO BE RETIRED INCLUDES FOUR BRIGADIER-GENERALS, AN ADMIRAL AND FOUR REAR ADMIRALS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Both the army and navy will lose an unusual number of its most notable leaders during 1916. No less than nineteen of the highest ranking naval and military officers will go upon the retired list during the year. This includes one admiral, four rear admirals and four brigadier-generals.

Included in the naval retirements will be that of the commander-in-chief of the Pacific fleet, the president of the Naval War college and a division commander of the Atlantic fleet, while in the army the losses through retirement will include the chief of the engineering corps and the president of the Army War college.

Perhaps the most noteworthy retirement will be that of Rear Admiral Bradley A. Fiske, until recently aid to operations in the navy department. When he goes upon the retired list next June, the navy will lose from active service one of the most brilliant of its officers. Admiral Fiske is famed not only for the American navy but in all the navies of the world for his writing and inventions. His resignation from the office of aid to operations, one of the most important offices in the navy department, some months ago, attracted much interest, particularly after it was learned that it was because of friction with Secretary Daniels over the naval policy of the United States.

The second of the rear admirals to retire during the year will be Cameron McRae Winslow, who by virtue of his command of the Pacific fleet, temporarily holds the title of admiral. His active service terminates on July 29, Rear Admiral Thomas B. Howard, who preceded him in command of the Pacific fleet, is scheduled to retire on August 10. Rear Admiral Clifford J. Boush, who commanded the second division of the Atlantic fleet at Vera Cruz, will leave the active service on August 13; Rear Admiral DeWitt Coffman, commanding the third division of the Atlantic fleet, on November 28; and Rear Admiral Austin M. Knight, president of the Naval War college at Newport. Other important naval retirements will be those of Medical Director W. R. DuBose on September 12; Prof. Stimson J. Brown, of the naval academy, on September 17, and Chief Machinist John T. Riley, on November 25.

As a result of these retirements, eight naval captains will be promoted to the flag rank. They are H. McL. Huse, Admiral Fletcher's chief of staff at Vera Cruz; William R. Rish, who commanded the landing force which captured Vera Cruz; Chief Engineer Robert S. Griffin, Harry S. Knapp, George W. McElroy and William L. Rogers.

In the army, Brigadier Generals Dan C. Kingman, chief of the corps of engineers, John M. Wisser, now commanding the first brigade in Hawaii, Montgomery M. McComb, president of the war college, and Robert K. Evans, commander of the second brigade on the Mexican border, will retire during the year. President Wilson will select their successors. In the navy promotions are by seniority.

JAX NEXT MEETING PLACE EAST COAST "BOOSTING CLUB"

DECIDED AT MIAMI CONVENTION TO ASK STATE FOR ADVERTISING APPROPRIATION OF $50,000.

The next meeting of the East Coast chamber of commerce is to be held at Jacksonville on the first Tuesday in April. Thereafter other meetings will be held quarterly in other East Coast cities. This was the decision reached by the members of the chamber of commerce shortly before the Miami convention adjourned Wednesday afternoon.

During the course of the convention's deliberations Secretary George A. Paddock, of the Miami chamber of commerce, introduced a resolution on the legislative committee to prepare a bill appropriating fifty thousand dollars for advertising Florida as it has been advertised this year by privately raised funds, collected by the Florida First commission.

The legislative committee was also called on to prepare a bill for passage by the legislature, establishing Highway Day. It was said that the establishment of such a holiday would stimulate interest in the good roads movement.

Further action was taken regarding the sending of a Florida exhibit to the Kansas City automobile show, and a committee composed of Guy T. Sherman, Ft. Lauderdale, E. V. Blackman, Miami; John D. Baker, Jacksonville; T. E. Fitzgerald, Daytona; A. A. Tano, West Palm Beach, and R. L. Goodwin, Ft. Pierce, was selected to prepare the exhibit and send it to Kansas City in time for the show in February.

A lyceum committee composed of R. L. Goodwin, Ft. Pierce; L. G. Biggers, West Palm Beach, and George A. Paddock, Miami, was appointed to arrange for a series of lectures to be given at the various towns included in the membership of the organization. These lectures will be on civic, industrial and agricultural subjects by men of prominence.

While the discussion regarding agriculture was under way, John D. Baker, first vice president of the Jacksonville chamber of commerce, and senior member of the Jacksonville and Miami wholesale grocery house of Baker & Holmes, declared that agricultural colleges were extremely beneficial from a standpoint of theory. there was a crying need for experimental stations along the coast. On his motion the legislative committee was instructed to draft a suitable bill for presentation at the next session of the legislature.

Other proposed legislation included a state constitutional convention, segregated units of Everglades reclamation, application of state lands and recovery of lands to be applied to drainage purposes, changes in the system of assessing taxes in the state which was declared to be archaic.

The association adopted a resolution presented by A. A. Tano, of West Palm Beach, relative to the support of a publicity bureau at Jacksonville by the counties of the association.

Mr. Tano declared that the most direct and, therefore, most effective method of publicity is personal contact, and the publicity bureau has been demonstrated as the most effective method of securing personal contact with the greatest number of people at the least expense.

The interests of the counties of the East Coast of Florida in the main are identical. Mr. Tano insisted, and therefore, they are peculiarly susceptible to co-operative work.

Secretary Horace Scott notified the association in writing, as required by the constitution, that he would present, or cause to be presented at the next meeting, an amendment to article III of the constitution, adding Seminole county to the list of counties eligible to representation, and also would seek to amend article I changing the name of the association from the Florida East Coast chamber of commerce to the East Florida chamber of commerce. His reason was that there are some counties eligible to membership which are not on the coast.

Important Distinction.
"Now I appeal to you as a farmer," began the man with a political argument on his mind. "Well, you needn't," replied Farmer Cornetassel. "I ain't no farmer. I've read all the scientific literature about tillin' the soil an' I'm two crops in debt fur improved machinery. I'm an expert agriculturist."

The "SILENT SMITH"

Model B shows what should now be expected of a typewriter.

The success of the L. C. Smith & Bros. typewriter has been due to the fact that the wants of the user have been taken into consideration. The user has decided in favor of certain improvements now incorporated in Model B. Among them are:

- Blank or Operator's—The most silent running machine ever placed on the market. Absolute silence has been secured by this construction.
- Despatch Typewriter—A key in holding and releasing. There is no extra change for this construction.
- Variable Line Spacing—Enables the operator to set on a given line and space from point of starting; also to write on lines when space varies from line to line.
- Letter Editor—A key which allows the operator to correct a mistake without having to stop.
- Chain of Carriage—A key which allows the user to move the carriage without having to stop.

All the important features of previous models have been retained—full bearing carriage, replaceable and rapid, lock keys, recommended ribbon, spring return, pressure type, double paper feed and automatic ribbon return.

STATE VS. HANEY 'CASE BOUND OVER

At the town hall in Seabreeze Thursday morning, Justice of the Peace John W. Williams gave his final decision on the preliminary hearing of the case of the State of Florida vs. J. D. Haney, on the charge of assault and battery, and turned the case over to the next term of the criminal court at DeLand.

Mr. Williams refrained from giving his decision at the end of the trial which was held Tuesday morning and held it until today, as he desired to consult County Solicitor Roy Hamlin when he came over from the county seat yesterday.

SEABREEZE TEAM TO LEAVE IN MORNING

The Seabreeze high school basket ball team will leave tomorrow morning for Palatka, where they are planning to again defeat the Palatka high school five. These two teams clashed on the local court about a month ago in the closest game of the season, which resulted in a defeat of Palatka after the game had been prolonged for five minutes on account of a tie score.

The last few nights have been spent in perfecting new signal plays with the aid of which the home boys are confident of adding another victory to their string. C. Doty Hobart will accompany the team to act as referee at the game in Palatka.

A DELAND PARTY VISITS CLARENDON

A motor party consisting of M. A.
Yessinger, Mrs. C. B. Rosa, and Mrs.
Alex Yooman, Mrs. Thos. H. White, residents of DeLand, spent the day in Seabreeze Wednesday, and were registered at the Hotel Clarendon for lunch. They returned home late in the evening, having enjoyed the day's outing to Seabreeze to the utmost.
Mr. Yessinger is an experienced hotel man of DeLand, and is planning to make several more trips to the coast this season, as he is very much pleased with the beautiful scenery in this part of the state.

MISS RANDALL ENTERTAINED AT AUCTION BRIDGE GAMES

Miss Gertrude Randall delightfully entertained the auction bridge club Thursday night at her home on Hollywood avenue. Tables were arranged in the living room and after a number of interesting games were played, Miss Carrie Freeman won the prize, a pair of silk hose, presented for the highest score made. Dainty refreshments were then served.

Miss Marie Merryday will entertain the club at its meeting next Thursday evening.

This prize was a beautiful sandwich basket. E. B. Mott won the first a fine deck of cards.

A delicious salad course was served after the playing, and was greatly enjoyed by those in attendance.

The rooms were tastefully decorated in green and white with beautiful chrysanthemums and roses. Mrs.
Holland was assisted in the entertainment by Mrs. J. Webby and Miss Lilly most popular men on the lecture platform today, has been secured to speak at the opening number of the entertainment course to be given at the Daytona Beach Methodist church this winter. Dr. Holtz is scheduled to speak on January 25. He is one of the best speakers ever brought before an audience on the peninsula and deserves a good house. The committee has almost completed arrangements for a large course, the numbers of which will be given later.

PLEASANT AFTERNOON

WITH MRS. FREDERICK

A social event of yesterday afternoon was the card party given by Mrs. E. S. Frederick at her home, the "Comfort Lodge," on Ocean avenue.
The lower floor of the residence was opened en suite and was artistically and beautifully decorated for the occasion in a yellow and purple color motif, being effectively carried out with draperies of yellow crepe, ribbon and violets. Tables were attractively arranged on the spacious porch and a number of interesting games of cards were played.

At their conclusion scores were compared and handsome and appropriate prizes were given to those holding highest scores. These were won by Mrs. S. Raiber, who held highest score, and Mrs. Dana Koontz, who held next highest, both receiving pictures beautifully framed. Mrs. Robert Clarke and Mrs. Jessie Lewis received the consolation prizes. After the awarding, a delicious luncheon, which carried out the color scheme, was greatly enjoyed, orange juice being served throughout the afternoon.
Each guest received as a favor a bunch of violets tied with a yellow ribbon. Sixteen ladies spent the delightful afternoon with the hostess.

CLEARING PROPERTY IN

PREPARATION TO BUILDING

J. Wright, of Canton, Pa., who is spending the winter at the Elmira on Halifax avenue, is having his property on the corner of Glenview boulevard and Peninsula drive, across from the Tourist church, cleared, and is planting nut trees and grapevines and variegated shrubbery. Mr. Wright will probably build in the spring or before the beginning of next season.

White Woodwork.

Use whitening and water and a soft cloth. This does not destroy the paint as a more vigorous cleanser does.
But if there are outside white window sills to be cleaned, and they are very much soiled by exposure to the weather, use ammonia and water. Be careful in using it, as it removes some of the paint as well as the dirt.

Sources of Rivers.

The great majority of the first-class rivers commence from chains of mountains, because springs are there most abundant, perpetually fed by the melting of the snows and glaciers. They have almost invariably an easterly direction, the westward-bound streams being few in number, and of very subordinate rank. Of rivers flowing east we have grand examples in the St.
Lawrence, Orinoco, Amazon, Danube, Ganges, Amour, Yangtze-Kiang and Hoang Ho.

The "SILENT SMITH"

—Model 8 shows what should now be expected of a typewriter.

Ball Bearing; Long Wearing

The success of the L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriters has been due to the fact that the wants of the user have dictated its construction. The user has decided in favor of certain improvements now incorporated in Model 8.
Among them are:

- Silence of Operation—The most silent running efficient typewriter ever placed on the market. Absolute silence has been very nearly attained.
- Decimal Tabulator—A help in billing and tabulating.
There is no extra charge for this convenience.
- Variable Line Spacer—Enables the operator to start on a given line and space from point of starting; also to write on ruled lines whose spacing varies from typewriter spacing. A great help in card work.
- Faster Ribbon Feed—Insures new place of impact for each typeface.
- Choice of Carriage Return—Upon special order the new left hand carriage return will be furnished in place of the right hand return.

All the important features of previous models have been retained —ball bearing carriage, typebars and capital shift, back spacer, key-controlled ribbon, removable platen, protected type, flexible paper feed and automatic ribbon reverse.

Write for New Catalog of Model 8. It will explain why the L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter is a synonym for superior service.

SUPPORT LYCEUM COURSE AND HELP PUBLIC SCHOOLS

MISS GAY ZENOIA MACLAREN, FAMOUS INTERPRETER OF POP-ULAR PLAYS, COMING JANU-ARY 12.

Last spring a movement was commenced in Daytona to bring a lyceum course to the city this winter for the benefit of the public schools. Interior decorations, paintings, etc., were needed not only for the large building now in use, but also for the two new structures that will in all probability be erected within the next few months. The desire was to raise a sufficient amount of money to beautify these buildings. It was not a movement for personal gain or profit; all gains were to be used for the purposes mentioned above. The Redpath bureau, which furnishes the best attractions of the country was secured. Supervising Principal H. Clay Marks assumed the initiative and secured the endorsement of the county superintendent and the members of the local board of school trustees. The cost of the course was guaranteed by 25 of the leading citizens of Daytona. The names of the guarantors appear at the end of this article.

In October Mr. Marks put in his entire time for two days selling season tickets. He met with a cordial response and sold quite a number of tickets. However, the duties incumbent upon him in his school work would not permit him to use a great deal of time pushing the sale of tickets. Yet at odd times he put in many strenuous hours at the task. The compensation that he receives for this work is the benefit that comes to the city schools, nothing more. It is with regret that we publish the fact that the general sale of tickets has in no wise reached our expectations. Very few tickets have been purchased except through solicitation. Two of the attractions have already been here—four are yet to come. This is not an appeal for a charitable contribution. You will find the worth of your money in these entertainments. We earnestly seek the patronage of the good people of Daytona for the next four numbers. They are as follows: Gay Zenoia MacLaren, January 12; American Quartet, February 1; Monteville Wood, March 2; and Ralph Bingham, March 21.

Including the cost of advertising and incidentals, the price of the course is just about $525. At present our books show that we must sell at least $175 worth of tickets in addition to those already sold before the course will pay for itself. The books and accounts are open to inspection at any time, and at the close of the course, a detailed account of receipts and expenditures will be published in the local papers.

Season tickets, seats reserved for the remaining numbers, may be secured at Hankins' drug store for $2 each. Single admission prices, general and reserved, will be published just before each lecture or entertainment. Patrons will find it less expensive and more satisfactory to purchase season tickets. Help us to fill the public school auditorium; help us to promote a good cause. We respectfully seek the support of the various clubs and organizations of the city, and the patronage of the guests of our hotels. Watch for the dates and attractions.

The following citizens and firms signed as guarantors of the course. They have thus signified their willingness to help bring to Daytona a number of first-class lectures and educational entertainments. H. Clay Marks, C. R. M. Sheppard, F. J. Niver, George F. Couch, C. M. Bingham, W. M. Harkin, A. W. Hamey, C. C. Bohannon, L. H. Rowe & Co., Gen. H. Gardner, T. E. Fitzgerald, J. D. C. Morris, C. G. Burgess, Michael Shultz, Journal Printing company, F. N. Conrad, M. G. Rowe, Daytona Book & Stationery company, First National bank, E. Kipp & company.

On Tuesday evening, January 12, at 8 o'clock in the public school auditorium will occur the third number of the course, Miss Gay Zenoia MacLaren, acknowledged to be a genius in imitative recitals of famous plays. What the metropolitan papers say: "Her work was superb. It is not too much to say that she scored a phenomenal success."—New York Times. "The audience sat motionless through the entire performance."—Philadelphia Times. "Miss MacLaren appeared before an audience of over a thousand people, who were held spell-bound by the young artist's marvelous work."—St. Louis Times. "No words can describe her power of keeping from 15 to 25 characters distinct before an audience."—Minneapolis Journal.

Come on Tuesday evening, help fill the auditorium to overflowing. You are assured of a splendid entertainment and you will also be assisting our public schools. Tickets are now on sale at Hankins' and they may be secured at the door on the evening of the entertainment. Single admission 50 cents.

H. CLAY MARKS,
Supervising Principal Daytona Public Schools.

"BILLY VAN DEUSEN; THE MERRY WIDOW"

At the Arcade theater Friday will be shown "Billy Van Deusen and the Merry Widow," the cast including John Stepping and Carol Holloway.

Billy Van Deusen is fascinated with all the gay young damsels he meets. Strutting along the beach he sees a girl bathing struggling in the water. Without hesitating Billy plunges into the water bringing her safely to shore. They are met by the rescued girl's husband. Billy receives a hearty handshake and is invited by the husband to his butcher shop to receive some dog meat as a reward. Billy is crushed.

Later as Billy, in dry clothing, is strolling along the beach his attention is again attracted. Another fair maiden is caught in the undertow. Again Billy plays the hero. After rescuing the second girl he receives a dollar for his trouble. He becomes enraged. Billy is later invited to call upon the auntie and the girl he rescued. He accepts the invitation and brings flowers to Marie, who playfully gives them to "auntie." Marie's action led Billy to believe that she thinks the flowers were intended for the elderly woman.

Billy gets desperate and proposes to Marie. Her husband, who has been away on a trip comes home just at the critical moment. He grabs Billy and rushes him from the garden, where Marie and he had been sitting. Marie's husband pushes Billy into the latter's car and at the point of his gun orders Billy to "beat it." Billy, whose heroic deeds have been his undoing, vows to wander henceforth in the desolate country where no pretty girls are found.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS

Premier Asquith of Great Britain is a very bad sailor. Even to cross the channel makes him seasick.

The United States government will lose about $1,400,000 annually in revenue through the enforcement of the state prohibition law in Washington.

In all probability the larger part of the present session of the Rhode Island legislature will be devoted to financial matters, as taxes will be imposed on inheritances and all kinds of bank accounts for the purpose of constructing and maintaining state roads.

The reason the conservationists declared that they would oppose the appointment of Secretary Houston of the department of agriculture to the supreme court bench was the fear that he would not be friendly to them. The position from a political point of view has to be filled by a Western man.

There are now over 1,000,000 women in New York state who are interested in the cause of suffrage. Society as well as the working classes is prominently represented in the number and it is reported that the ranks are being enlarged daily. The year 1916 opened with great promise for the cause of votes for women.

State finances will also play an important part in the deliberations of the New York legislature during the present session. Governor Whitman has gone in for what he terms a "scientific budget," and old-time legislators have not taken kindly to the idea of surrendering to the governor the right to prepare the budget as well as pass upon it later.

Senator John Wingate Weeks, of Massachusetts, has been added to the list of presidential possibilities, but not a presidential candidate. In other words, his destinies are in the hands of his friends, and his friends are doing a good job, making the name of Weeks resound throughout the country as the saviour and leader of Republican hopes in 1916.

RAILROAD NOTES.

George C. Fernald, Jr., of Newton, Mass., is the new head of the legal department of the Boston & Albany railroad.

There is a considerable volume of freight moving to Galveston for export and a large number of cars are standing there awaiting unloading.

Thousands of tons of coal are being stored in Toledo by railroads in anticipation of a possible miners' strike next April. The New York Central has 70,000 tons at Air Line junction, and this amount will be doubled, officials say.

The interstate commerce commission announces a hearing at Washington on January 23, for further argument on questions relating to the physical valuation of railroads.

BIG CROWD ATTENDED ARCADE CELEBRATION

The fourth anniversary celebration of the opening of the Arcade amusement hall was held at that popular amusement place Thursday evening and like previous celebrations was attended by a big crowd of merry-makers and spectators.

The celebration consisted of a grand roller skating masquerade and the hall was a bright scene of gaiety until a late hour. Many graceful skaters were present and the costumes were attractive and beautiful. Prizes were awarded both ladies and gentlemen, the ladies' prizes being awarded to Mrs. L. E. McCormick and Miss Elizabeth Reese and a complimentary prize was presented to Miss Agnes Stearns, of Boston, Mass. The first prize for gentlemen was awarded to M. E. Blackburn and the second to Peter Chablain. E. J. Mills, S. E. Langway and S. L. Williams acted as judges for the awarding of the prizes. Souvenirs were presented to all persons attending the celebration.

THE WEATHER

Frost did try to rain, but only to the weather man's predictions.
swallowed his words this morning, rather shamefacedly announcing he was going to send the Florida Coast the lion's share of a lot extra sunshine he's been keeping away.

Frost admits that the weather is colder throughout the state, particularly so in the extreme north and northwestern portion.
He says that the mercury will be 25 degrees in the sugar cane which statement, coming from his authority, is probably the truth.

plete the sermons being too short.

what they are if you only take the trouble to know them.

Alcohol applied with a sponge

Cossack "Adventurers."
The word "Cossack," itself, is a derivative from the Turkish prototype of "adventurer," which is a typical word for the description of these roving horsemen. The Cossack population of Russia amounts to roughly 2,500,000 men and women, and they collectively own some 140,000,000 acres of Russian territory.

Proper sanitary conditions, such as destroying the fly and mosquito and their breeding places, providing good sewage disposal, keeping the premises clean, and a prompt application of anti-typhoid vaccine where there is the least suspicion of the fever, will prevent typhoid fever. Preventive methods will save 35,000 lives annually.

FOUR ESCAPED GERMANS ARRESTED.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Four Germans who escaped from the interned warships in Norfolk harbor were to-day arrested by agents of the government. Two were employed on the United States dredge which is digging on some new coast fortifications and the remaining two were discovered as employees of the textile mills situated near the DuPont Powder company. While the facts may be circumstantial, yet many officials believe the German naval men guilty of spying and hints have been circulated regarding their connection with the recent disasters at the power factories.

AMERICANS SAFE IN MADERA.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The state department was officially informed that the report of the of the United States in this city are said to be unharmed.

"If music be the food of love, play on."

NO. 2.
"Nor knowest thou what argument Thy life to thy neighbor's creed has lent;

No name was signed to No. 2, and it is therefore barred. The second line contains eight words, one more than the number allowed.

Here are the conditions which contestants must comply with:

Rule 1. Communications shall be addressed to the "Sentimental Editor Daily News, Daytona, Fla."

Rule 2. No contestant will be allowed to have more than one trial.

Rule 3. Each communication submitted must have on it the sender's full name and address.

Rule 4. No communication bearing a postmark later than January 31, 1916, will be considered.

Rule 5. Only actual residents of Volusia county or bona fide students in Volusia county schools are eligible to participate in the contest (the latter include pupils from abroad).

Following this, the winner will be notified, and requested to supply the paper with a photograph or portrait.

The names of the judges chosen to determine which motto shall be selected and to award the prize will be announced later. Contestants' letters will be published daily in the News.

WELL KNOWN EDITOR

STAYING AT BENNETT
Lynn S. Abbott, of New York city, is stopping at the Bennett house. Mr. Abbott is president of the National Sunday Magazine company. Charles B. Longyear, secretary of the same concern, is also spending the winter at the Bennett.

The opposition to Justice Hughes as a presidential candidate is based, by many, upon the fact that his views on what will be the paramount issues, such as "business persecuting policies," "tariff for revenue only," etc., are not known. Then it is felt that Justice Hughes is badly needed in his present position.

DREW VIVID PICTURE OF LABRADOR COAST

C. H. FARNUM ENTERTAINED PALMETTO CLUB WITH INSTRUCTIVE DESCRIPTION OF "A CANOE CRUISE ON THE COAST OF LABRADOR."

A regular meeting of the Palmetto club was held Thursday afternoon in the clubhouse on Orange avenue. Mrs. Murray L. Stanley, the club president, presided, and very charmingly welcomed the members and guests. Mrs. J. H. Donnelly and Mrs. George N. Chamberlin were the hostesses.

The program opened with a piano selection by Mrs. E. H. Hotchkiss, a sonata by Beethoven, which was very well executed, and showed remarkable technique on the part of Mrs. Hotchkiss.

Miss Edith Newell, secretary of the civic department, read a paper on child labor, and announced that January 23 would be observed as "Child Labor" day. It was voted to send a written communication to congress expressing the approval of the club upon the passage of the child labor bill.

Mrs. C. H. Raynor announced that a "Colonial Pageant" will be held on the evening of February 21 at the clubhouse. Mrs. George N. Chamberlin announced that there will be a meeting of the music department Friday morning, January 21, at 10:30, in the clubhouse. The program will be devoted to the compositions of Chas. Wakefield Cadman. Literary numbers will be given by Mrs. M. P. Cornwall and Mrs. W. E. Hitchcock, vocal selections by Mrs. Browne and Miss Pierson, and piano selections by Mrs. Margaret Snyder. Members and friends will be welcome. A small fee will be charged, which income will be used to help defray the department expenses.

Mrs. George N. Chamberlin read papers from the president of the De-Land woman's club, Mrs. W. R. Stephens, suggesting that the club members lend assistance to make the Volusia county fair a success, and to join in the automobile parade on the opening day, the cars to be decorated in the colors of the club, also to make an effort to send articles for display at the fair. Mrs. Chamberlin also read a paper from Mrs. W. O. Jennings, president of the Florida Federation of Woman's Clubs, regarding a state park, and urged the assistance of all the woman's clubs to help financially to maintain the park.

Reports were read by Mrs. William Atwood and Mrs. N. A. Sears. Mrs. Henry Mitchell also made some very interesting suggestions pertaining to club matters.

A very fine vocal number was given by Miss Armada Pierson, "Beloved, It Is Morn." Mrs. Otis at the piano.

Mrs. C. H. Farnum then gave a most interesting and instructive talk on "A Canoe Cruise on the Coast of Labrador." A very vivid picture was drawn by Mr. Farnum of this most wild and romantic coast, of which we know so little, and explained about the characteristics of the people, their timidity and hospitality.

This number closed a most delightful afternoon at the clubhouse, where beauty and hospitality go hand in hand.

Daytona Beach is the most marvelous beach in the world.

"SOUL OF BROADWAY" ATTRACTION TODAY AT CRYSTAL THEATRE

At the Crystal theatre this afternoon and evening, the switchboard of the mammoth police headquarters building in New York city, the largest telephone operating board in the world, may be seen in full operation with its uniformed operators in "The Soul of Broadway," the sensational William Fox photodrama starring the far-famed Valeska Suratt. Such a privilege has never before been granted any picture company; in fact, the proceedings at the switchboard over which come the swiftly flashed reports of crime, large and small, in every section, have been kept a secret from outsiders. In "The Soul of Broadway," therefore, the public at large gets its first chance to see just how the New York police headquarters telephone system is worked, including the operation of sending out a general alarm for an escaped murderer.

The switchboard, which is shown in its entirety and in "close-ups," is four hundred feet long and at it are seated twenty operators, all keen, alert, picked men in uniform. It is estimated that in the course of a year six million calls come over the wires, some trivial, some telling tragic stories of crime and death in their most hideous and repellent forms. In making the scenes at police headquarters, Director Herbert Brenon has the full co-operation of Commissioner Arthur Woods, every operation being carried out in minutest detail and according to the exact daily routine followed in such matters.

Very True.

The Phrenologist—"Yes, sir, by feeling the bumps on your head I can tell you exactly what sort of a man you are." Mr. Dolan—"O! believe it wud give ye more av an oldea wot sort av a whimmen me wolfe is."

The Two Classes.

The late Charles Frohman used to divide Americans into two classes—those who dine in evening dress and those who dine in their shirtsleeves. "Or, to put it better," Mr. Frohman would say, "the two great American classes are, first, those who dress for dinner, and, second, those who undress for dinner."

L. SMITH QUALIFIES AS CANDIDATE FOR CITY COMMISSIONER

Bearing the names of the number of voters required by law in such cases, the petition of Lew Smith, candidate for one of the Daytona commissions, was filed with the city clerk yesterday afternoon. Mr. Smith, who was formerly a member of the municipal council, was, for several days before deciding to announce his candidacy, mentioned as a probable aspirant for one of the nominations to be made on January 25. He is well known and a popular citizen.

COL. SLOCUM'S YACHT SAILS FOR DAYTONA

Colonel and Mrs. S. L. H. Slocum have left Washington aboard their handsome new power yacht, the Jonetta, on their way to Daytona and Miami. It is believed that the party will reach the Halifax river within the next two weeks, unless delayed by the extremely low water in the canals between here and St. Augustine.

Colonel and Mrs. Slocum are popular members of Washington society and have become noted as host and hostess in their home at 1785 Massachusetts avenue.

ARMY ESCAPE OF GERMAN SERGEANT AND A PRIVATE

BERLIN, Jan. 13.—The new administration reports that Sergeant Kurovsky, of Angerburg, has been decorated with the Iron cross of the first class and that Private Kurz, a volunteer from Wittenberg, received the second class of this decoration.

On a cold November morning, Kurovsky, who was in a trench on the front, noticed that a small enemy machine gun on the opposite shore of the river was leaving its position temporarily to go to a shelter for a rest. During non-commissioned officer duty to capture the position single-handed. Throwing off his coat, he jumped into the water and Kurz, who did not know what was intended, followed him.

With a few strokes the two men reached the opposite bank, and, arming themselves with guns they found in the trench, they made for the shelter of the enemy. There they found two men, who surrendered after two minutes had been wounded.

If you read it in the Daily News it is apt to be just that way.

Silvernail, proprietor of the Oaks hotel next door. The flames had been communicated to some board stuff nearby and were threatening the adjacent buildings. Mr. Greene was aroused and quickly subdued the blaze with a chemical fire extinguisher.

WOULD APPRECIATE SMALLER DONATIONS

COMMODORE BURGOWNE SEEKS AN EXPRESSION OF PUBLIC INTEREST IN CONTRIBUTIONS TO BAND CASINO CHAIR FUND.

There have been within the past few days several more $5 and $10 donations to the chair fund, or rather the furnishing fund, for the Burgoyne band casino and while these larger donations swell more rapidly the total amount it would probably please Commodore Burgoyne a whole lot more if the people generally were to enter more freely into the spirit of the thing and come forward with their smaller donations of a dollar or less as they felt they could spare it. It is not a question of money with the Commodore. The furnishing of the casino will play but a small part in comparison with the cost of the building and he probably could, without going hungry, raise the money for the purchase of the furnishings. It is more, the Daily News takes it, to afford the people an opportunity to express their interest in and appreciation of the band and new building that Commodore Burgoyne has given the public the privilege of contributing the funds for the furnishings and without disparaging the donations of the larger amounts it is undoubtedly true that Commodore Burgoyne would derive more satisfaction from a flood of dollar donations. Do not stand back because you feel you cannot spare five dollars, but contribute what you can with the assurance that it is not the amount of the donation but the spirit that prompts it that stamps its value with Daytona's great friend and benefactor.

The Oregon Short Line has issued an announcement that after February 15 the Oregon gateway will be closed to through passenger traffic by way of the Denver & Rio Grande. This action is in accordance with a ruling of the interstate commerce commission made last summer.

FORMER DAYTONA GIRL IS TENDERED BIRTHDAY PARTY

Miss Maud Decker, formerly of this city but now making her home in St. Petersburg, where she is a very popular member of the younger set, was recently tendered a most delightful birthday party in that city, the following account of which reaches the Daily News:

"The home of Mrs. James Sweeney, 800 Eighth street, north, was the scene of one of the most brilliant social affairs of the season, given in honor of Miss Maud Decker in celebration of her 19th birthday anniversary. Games of various kinds were enjoyed in the early part of the evening, following which the guests repaired to the dining room, where covers were laid for 19 couples. After the dinner the young people indulged in dancing, music being furnished by the Boehm and Brandenburg orchestra."

W. H. WRIGHT IS STILL RIGHT; W. B. WRIGHT WAS WRONG

There has been some misunderstanding as to the identity of the Wright who so dramatically discontinued his subscription to the Gazette-News recently. Quite a number of persons have confused the initials, "W. B.," with those of W. H. Wright, the sign painter. W. H. Wright is a man of good sound judgment and exhibits his confidence in the Gazette-News company and its publications by carrying a front page advertisement in the Daily News.

F. N. CONRAD PRESIDENT OF MERCHANTS BANK

F. J. NIVER NAMED AS THE NEW CASHIER

ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCK-HOLDERS OF INSTITUTION
HELD THURSDAY AFTERNOON
—USUAL DIVIDEND DECLARED.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Merchants Bank, held yesterday afternoon, F. N. Conrad was elected president to fill the vacancy caused by the death of his brother, the late Senator J. B. Conrad.

F. J. Niver, for many years assistant cashier of the institution, was elevated to the position of cashier, and A. N. Otis was elected assistant cashier to fill the position formerly held by Mr. Niver.

F. N. Conrad has been connected with the Merchants bank for nearly 20 years and during most of that period has held the office of cashier.
He is also president of the East Coast State bank at Daytona Beach, and a director of the Atlantic National bank of Jacksonville.

Mr. Niver has been connected with the institution for about 12 years, having entered the bank as teller. Mr.
Otis has been paying teller for the past four years.

The usual dividend of 10 per cent.
was declared and a considerable sum added to the surplus.

S. A. Wood and Col. Bingham were re-elected vice-presidents.

The following statement of the condition of the bank at the close of the year's business was submitted to the stockholders and makes a very flattering showing:

BASKET BALL GAME AT ARCADE TONIGHT

The Daytona high school basket ball team will meet Gainesville high school at 8:00 o'clock this evening at the Arcade, in one of the fastest and snap-pest games of the season.

The Gainesville boys are in fair trim and altogether represent more weight than the Daytona defenders, but they will not play with the splendid form for which the latter are noted. Since the first of the year D.
H. S. has been picking up rapidly in speed and accuracy and the audience may look for a lively contest tonight.

The junior class of the Daytona high school will sell candy during the game. The returns from the sales are to go toward the heavier expenses incurred in the publication of the Sentinel, the school paper. Members of the Gainesville team left their homes early this morning in an automobile and will spend the night at Daytona.

Real Life.

In Russia, because the peasants have no books to read, they are all forced to read the book of nature.
They do not hear the imitation of the nightingale, therefore they listen to the nightingale itself. They do not look at "real life," as depicted in novels, therefore they look at real life without the novels.

BOAT LINE IS HAVING PLENTY OF TROUBLE

STEAMER McNEIL ON BANK AT THE INLET AND SWAN BREAKS
HER SHAFT ON TRIP DOWN
THE COAST.

The Howard Transportation company has been having its troubles during the last week, but every possible effort has been made to keep boats running to handle the heavy freight business at this time of the year.

The first serious trouble happened when the steamer Swan broke her shaft in getting away from the dock in Daytona last week. It was necessary to send to Jacksonville for an expert welder, who succeeded in getting the shaft welded in a couple of days and the steamer went back to Jacksonville, loaded up and started for another trip down the East Coast waterway. Between Jacksonville and St. Augustine the shaft broke in two where it had been welded, leaving the big steamer helpless.

Two launches were sent out from Jacksonville to tow the Swan to Daytona. She passed St. Augustine yesterday shortly after noon, but had not reached Ocean City, 25 miles north of Daytona, at 11 o'clock today. It is expected, however, that the Swan will reach Daytona some time tonight.

The steamer McNeil, which makes the trip to New Smyrna and farther down the coast, went on the bank at the inlet last Saturday night, carried by the strong wind and tide, and has been stuck fast since that time. Efforts to float her have been unsuccessful and Manager J. H. Howard of the transportation company came down from Jacksonville Monday to investigate the condition of the steamer and see what could be done about getting her off the bank. He was at the McNeil Tuesday when he received a message telling of the accident to the Swan and he took the afternoon train to Jacksonville to get a tug to tow the Swan to Daytona with her load of freight. The Swan will then be towed back to Jacksonville to have her shaft repaired.

Then, if the McNeil isn't floated by that time, a tug will be brought down to the inlet to see if the big steamer can't be pulled off the bank.

YACHT LOUNGE PLANS TEN DAYS' VISIT HERE

The raised deck cruiser Glenray-gene, owned by Eugene D. Williams, of Utica, N. Y., tied up at the club dock late yesterday. She has been laid up for the season at McDonald's ship yard.

Raymond Williams, son of the owner, assisted in putting her in commission. She is 36 feet over all, and is equipped with a 25-horse-power Lowe-Victor motor.

Last winter Mr. and Mrs. Williams and their son lived aboard the Glenraygene for several months. Part of the time she lay anchored off Daytona.
This year the party expect to cruise south to Biscayne bay and down through the Florida Keys to Key West.

Mr. Williams owns a winter residence at 74 Third avenue, Daytona.

YACHT GLENRAYGENE NOW IN COMMISSION

Last evening the cruising yacht Lounge, hailing from Ocean City, N.
J., sought the comfort of the club dock just before the northerly storm chased the pleasure craft from the river. She is a boat of 47 feet over all with ample cabin room and shoal draft. A 25-horse-power heavy duty Standard motor drives her a little better than eight miles.

Her owner, H. W. Allen, plans to leave Daytona by the 24th of the month and drop down to Miami. The party consists of Mr. and Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Simons, a guest. They will spend their time here in seeing "the prettiest winter resort in the world" thoroughly.

Captain H. Sutton is in charge of the yacht and L. F. Martin holds the berth of chief engineer.

Mixed.

There is a man living in Langhorne, Pa., who amuses himself by grafting all sorts of plants upon other plants.
He has invented the "table d'hôte" tree, formerly a peach tree that did its full duty in bearing peaches but that now bears apples, plums and cherries as well, besides supporting grafts of cedar, rose, hemlock, blackberry and lilac. With what curiosity the peach tree's relatives must look upon it!

M'COY LOOKING OVER EVERGLADES ROUTE

After B. F. McCoy delivered the yacht U. S. A., to Mrs. Carnegie, at Miami, he continued his trip into the Everglades to look over the water conditions of the route between Fort Lauderdale and Fort Pierce.

McCoy Brothers are planning to put two fast passenger steamers on the line at an early date. It is said that the depth of water in some places along the canals amounts to but 15 inches.

Upon his return, Mr. McCoy will take charge of the Dixie Flyer and the Eagle, which have been appointed to the route. The steamers are now having the finishing touches put on them at the McCoy ship yard after a thorough overhauling.

Daily Thought.

The perfectly balanced man will be a nonentity. To be interesting is to accomplish anything in this world with a certain amount of oneness, enthusiasm or partisanship is essential.
—Bruce Calvert.
